

Title: The History of Silicon Detectors in Particle and X-ray Physics

Speaker: Robert Klanner, Hamburg University

Abstract:

The talk presents the historical development of silicon detectors. Emphasis is put on different sensor concepts which have been realized, the performances achieved and selected results from experiments in particle and X-ray science which became possible thanks to silicon detectors.